

Please protect the Indiana's telephone privacy law that is now being contested by CBA's challenge to the FCC. Consumers can contact their banking facilities at their discretion by mail, online, or by phone when they need to. We should have the right to not be harrassed by advertising by phone. Thankyou, Dan Sullivan.